

WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS' WRIGHTS'

Beginning 9 a. m. Tuesday this splendid sale of EMBROIDERIES

It is safe to say at least one thousand women have stopped to admire the embroideries in our windows. It is the most remarkable sale ever offered to the women of Utah. More than one customer has asked "Why do you do it--why make such sacrifices?" We make no sacrifice in this sale---it is the result of clever buying--of our being in touch with the really big makers...so don't stop to ask why?...just get all you can of these embroideries, for we cannot say when another sale of such values will happen.

This Lot 5c a Yard

We state the case very conservatively when we say that in this lot there will be embroideries worth double--there are some which are worth more than double..Cambric and Venician edges up to and including 5 inch widths.. These are usually sold out quickly.....altho there are plenty at present

5c

This Lot 10c a Yard

There will actually be offered in this lot Corset Cover Embroideries. Also a line of edgings and insertions in a variety of patterns and materials. These may be seen in one of the windows, at least a part of the lot is shown and hundreds of yards are ready to be added. Up to 25c values

10c

This Lot 15c a Yard

This lot will contain some excellent Corset Embroideries, materials which are considered good at 35c to 45c a yard. There will also be offered here some of the fine sets of edgings and insertions in various widths and for nearly all purposes. Also a line of flouncings ---17 inches wide

15c

This Lot 19c a Yard

The embroideries in this lot are rather of the refined class than the showy order. These are not over 9 inches wide, but of superior materials and workmanship. The materials are nainsook, swiss and cambric of unusually good quality. In this assortment you will find sets of same pattern

19c

This Lot 25c a Yard

This is the lot which has caused the greatest comment. The lot which is now shown in the corner windows. There really embroideries in this lot worth $2.00 a yard, as a glance at the windows will testify. 18, 24 and 27 inch wide flouncings, corset cover emb., galloons headings, edges

25c

This Lot 48c a Yard

This is also one of the best lots in the sale, offering values which are worth more than we care to state, we don't care to appear untruthful about the merchandise, so we will ask you to see them. Handsome sets of nainsook and swiss, some of the flouncings are twenty-seven inches wide. All on one large table, at

48c

This is the lot at 98c

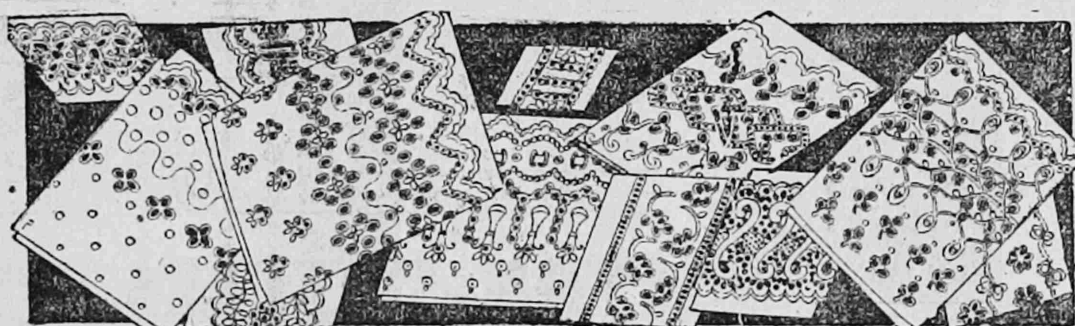

We think this lot contains the greatest values. While they are not showy and do not appear at first sight to as great value as some of the lower priced ones, still they will appeal to those who are lovers of the fine quality of the dainty lacy designs. Done of fine batiste, patterns which match. Up to 27 inches wide

98c

Colored Embroidery

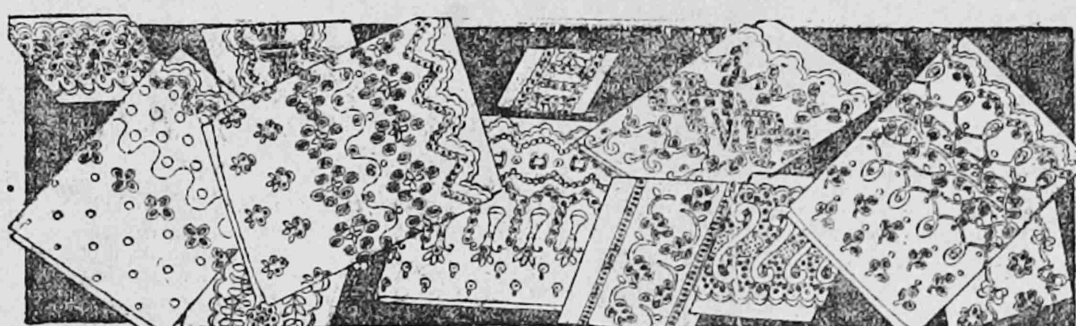

As the line of colored embroideries are of various prices we decided to put them into one lot and ask just half of the regular price shown. The line consists of all of the different colors in embroideries and edges---white background with the usual colorings in designs

REV. ELMER I. GOSHEN AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

During May there will be no morning service in the Congregational church, but the Sunday school and the Young People's society will continue their regular sessions. At the evening hour for the five Sundays, Rev. Elmer I. Goshen of the First Church, Salt Lake, will preach. Mr. Goshen was formerly the pastor of the Ogden church and generously returned to his old pulpit at the earnest solicitation of the trustees of the church and the present minister. Today Mr. Elderskin will preach at both services. Special features give promise of an attractive hour.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

The Leanne Tailoring Co. has removed from 183 25th to 123 27th. They hope that their many patrons will follow them. Goods called for and delivered.

BEGGARS ARE SENT TO JAIL

It required but three minutes time for Judge Murphy to transact the business of the municipal court Saturday morning.

John McGraw pleaded guilty to vagrancy and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $10, or serve ten days in the city bastille. John was solicitous that he be permitted to "go his way and sin no more," stating that he would get a job immediately, or leave the city and not give the officers further worry. The court did not look upon John as one who would exercise much energy in getting a job, or in leaving the city. The judge said he thought John would do well in the city cemetery, using a pick and shovel.

George Moran and James Hadley acknowledged that they are beggars, and that they had figured on making their living in that way. Hadley stated, though, that he is new at the business and that his first efforts would be the last, if the court would permit him to get out and get to work. Moran had nothing to say, evidently content with his lot, and entertaining no fear of cell life, for a few days. The men were sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or spend ten days in jail, at hard labor.

The hall of Cora Johnson, Bell Love and Emma Thompson, colored, of $10 each, was declared forfeited, the parties not appearing to answer the charge of vagrancy.

HEN HAS A HUMAN FACE AND FLAT LEGS
Chicago, April 23.—Guests and employees of a down town hotel last night were interested in a white hen that has features of a human being—a clearly defined nose and lips in place of the beak and mouth of a chicken, and feet like knobs instead of claws.

"The chicken is nine months old," said Michael Singer, one of the hotel porters who owns the fowl. "and is compelled to eat from the hand of a person, being unable to pick food like other chickens. It cannot scratch and does not cackle nor make other noises like a chicken. It has laid two eggs, both of which were flat on one side and of extraordinary size."

PRINCE IS COMING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Royal Visitor From Chinese Empire Will Make Stop in This City

Passenger Traffic Manager Charles S. Fee of the Southern Pacific system yesterday wired Superintendent Manson that Prince Tsai Tao, war minister of China and uncle of the emperor of that country, would leave San Francisco the same afternoon on a special train over the Harriman system and would arrive in Ogden Sunday afternoon as the second section of the east-bound Overland Limited. The prince is accompanied by a suite of twenty-five Chinese dignitaries, and the party is in charge of Assistant Passenger Agent H. R. Judah of the Southern Pacific. His royal highness has been the recipient of distinguished attention en route from the Flamingo Kingdom, and is now en route to Washington to pay his respects to President Taft and the Chinese embassy.

Railroad officials between San Francisco and Omaha have been requested to give the touring nobility special attention, and the equipment of the special is the finest in service on the entire Harriman system.

The special will stop at only two points west of Ogden.

H. Sling, the Oriental agent of the Harriman system, with headquarters in Chicago, is in Ogden to meet the Chinese prince.

Up to about fourteen years ago Sling conducted a Chinese store in Ogden on Twenty-fifth street, where the American Tea company's store is. He was known from coast to coast as one of the most influential Chinese in America and it was through this reputation that he was offered and accepted a position with the Southern Pacific company as traveling agent among the Orientals of the eastern states.

When the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific were merged by the late E. H. Harriman, Sling was transferred to the Chicago office of the passenger director of the system. He is considered one of the best, well-read Chinamen in America and enjoys the distinction of being popular with diplomats as well as railroad officials.

WORKING ON POWER PLANT IN CANYON

Chief Electrical Engineer Babcock of the Southern Pacific Railway system, with headquarters at San Francisco, has been in the city during the past few days, to carefully inspect the new electrical power plant constructed by the Utah Light & Railway company at the mouth of Weber canyon. The plant is practically completed and it will be only a few days when the water will be turned on to the great wheels, and a current of electricity sent on its lighting and heating mission to Ogden and Salt Lake. The cement aqueduct, over two miles long, seven feet in diameter, and among the largest of its kind in the United States, has long since been completed, and is now in perfect condition to perform its duty. By the mere turning of a headgate at the concrete dam just above Devil's Gate, enough water will run through the aqueduct to generate electricity at the new plant.

A steel tower line has been constructed from the plant to the main distribution line of the Utah Light & Railway company, leading from Ogden to Salt Lake, and the connection has been made between the new line and the old on the Sand Ridge, southwest of the city. It is anticipated that within the next two weeks the new current of electricity from the Weber Canyon plant, will be in use at various points along the distributing system of the company.

Manager Decker states that it is the intention of the company to build a
